

JEFFREY T. KELLER, PHD

Profile

Education

Undergraduate: B.A. in Biology, University of Cincinnati, 1969
Graduate: M.S. in Biology, University of Cincinnati, 1971
Doctorate: Anatomy, University of Cincinnati, 1975
Fellowship: National Institutes of Health, 1978-1980

Experience

University of Cincinnati College of Medicine:

Research Professor of Neurosurgery, 1990-present; Adjunct Professor of Anatomy, 1990-present; Director, Division of Education, Department of Neurosurgery, 1989-present; Co-director, Goodyear Microsurgery Laboratory, 1988-present; Research Associate Professor of Neurosurgery, 1984-1990; Director, Division of Neurosurgery Research, Department of Neurosurgery, 1984-1989

Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences, Bethesda, Maryland: Instructor, Neuroanatomy, 1979-1980

Dr. Keller specializes in neuroanatomical research and education, with special interest in cranial nerves and the surgical anatomy of the skull base

Professional Memberships

American Association of Anatomists

Cajal Club

Cincinnati Academy of Medicine, Associate

Frank H. Mayfield Society

International Brain Research Organization

North American Skull Base Society

Society for Neuroscience

Society of the Sigma Xi

Stroke Council, American Heart Association, Fellow

Office Location

University of Cincinnati College of Medicine

Department of Neurosurgery

260 Stetson Street, Suite 2200

Cincinnati, Ohio 45219

Phone: 513-558-3565

Fax: 513-558-7702

MAYFIELD
C L I N I C
&
S P I N E I N S T I T U T E

www.mayfieldclinic.com